

Literacy Advance meets the growing need for literacy services in the Houston community by collaborating with schools, libraries, and other community-based organizations. We aim to provide program partners with a quality literacy solution which is easily accessible and free for the adult students and families.

By establishing partnerships that bring our high-quality literacy services to various locations around Houston, we combine forces with organizations in our community, avoiding a duplication of efforts. We greatly value the work our partners do in the community, and our goal is to create partnerships that build on the strengths of our respective organizations and complement the work we are each doing to improve the lives of Houstonians.

Who can partner with Literacy Advance?

We partner with a variety of organizations throughout Houston. Program partnerships include:

- Elementary schools, where we provide English as a Second Language (ESL) to parents;
- Community-based organizations, where we provide literacy services to help clients of those organizations prepare them to take advantage of the services provided there;
- Libraries, where we provide literacy services to adults in the surrounding community;
- And more!

What types of programs does Literacy Advance provide?

- English as a Second Language (ESL)
- Adult Basic Education (ABE)
- Supplementary classes (e.g. computer or work readiness classes)
- Family Literacy events
